CME Accreditation Statement

The Wisconsin Medical Society is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement

The Wisconsin Medical Society designates this enduring activity for a maximum of 8 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Method of Participation

After completing each module, participants must complete an evaluation and a post-test where they must answer at least 80% of the answers correctly to receive AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. The participant cannot request credit until this score is achieved.

Planning Committee (For CME)

Bernard J. Hammes, PhD; Gregory Thompson, MD; Sig Gundersen, III, MD; Linda Briggs, MSN, MA, RN; Stephanie Anderson, DNP, RN; Kathleen Ziemba, MSW, LCSW; Pat Tadel, MSN, RN; and Paul Larson, MS, RN.

Some curriculum planners have an employment relationship with Gundersen Medical Foundation, Inc. We are a provider of the program, but we do not endorse any commercial products in conjunction with this program. Off-label use of any products will not be discussed.

Disclosure

It is the policy of the Wisconsin Medical Society to ensure balance, independence, and objectivity in all its educational activities. Planners and speakers must disclose any financial interests relevant to the education's subject matter. If a conflict of interest is identified, the Society implements its methods of resolution. Prior to the beginning of the educational activity, disclosures of any relevant financial relationships or lack thereof will be made to the learners.

Target Audience

The target audience is interprofessional and includes primary care physicians, all specialty physicians, allied health providers, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, pharmacists, social workers, clergy/faith leaders, community volunteers/leaders, attorneys, and others involved in advance care planning (ACP).

This online course is intended for two groups:

Those individuals who are working towards certification as ACP Facilitators (i.e. First Steps® (FS), Next Steps (NS), and Last Steps® (LS)). This online course is a prerequisite for those intending to complete their certification by attending Respecting Choices® FS, NS, or LS ACP certification classroom courses.
