

Revisions to Respecting Choices® First Steps® Program

As a commitment to continuous quality improvement, the Respecting Choices (RC) First Steps (FS) Program is reviewed and revised every three years. The RC staff, along with a national Advisory Group, have begun work on revising the FS Design and Implementation, FS Facilitator Certification, and FS Instructor Certification courses. The new curricula will be ready for distribution in Quarter 4, 2018.

First Steps® Program Revisions 2018 Advisory Group

Gwendolyn E. Bondi, MS Bioethics

Care Choices Program Manager, Palliative Care
Visiting Nurse Service of Northeastern New York

Chris Brinneman, MSW, LCSW

Manager Advance Care Planning
Parkview Health, Indiana

Terri Desrochers, RN, BSN, CCM

Program Coordinator for Shared Decision Making
Dartmouth Hitchcock, New Hampshire

Kellie Durgan, RN, BSN

Manager, Advanced Care Planning
Providence Health Care, Washington

Marilyn Follen, RN, MSN

Advance Care Planning Coordinator
Marshfield Clinic Health System, Wisconsin

Rebecca Gruszkos, LCSW, ACHP-SW

Advance Care Planning Manager
Bon Secours Health System, Virginia

Sarah Hackenbracht, MPA

Director, Greater Dayton Advance Care Planning Initiative
Greater Dayton Area Hospital Association, Ohio

Leslie Jang, LCSW

First and Advanced Steps Organizational Faculty
Kaiser Permanente Southern California

Danielle Rathke, DNP, RN

Advance Care Planning Coordinator
Gundersen Health System, Wisconsin