Leadership Strategies to Promote Person-Centered Care: Thriving Through Leadership Transitions

Mary Catlin, MS, CCLS, Senior Director, Honoring Choices Pacific Northwest
Stephanie Anderson, DNP, RN Deputy Executive Director, Respecting Choices

MAKING THE CASE TO YOUR NEW LEADER
Start with Stories

- Local
- Meaningful
- Concise

Business Considerations
What is the business case for your leader?

- Advances a person-centered care mission
- Improves quality of care by ensuring people receive care that honors their goals and preferences
- Expect questions on financial impact
Your Leader is Supportive!

Now what?

It is crucial to formally get their buy-in and provide specifics:

- Embed in strategic plan and organizational chart
- Specific budget or line item for implementation and sustainability
- Technology optimization
- Analytics
Spreading the Message
A new leader must embrace the change and get to the front

Maintain Leadership Engagement and Support
Keeping Leadership Updated
THRIVE THROUGH LEADERSHIP TRANSITIONS

Ensuring Sustainability
The Role of Conveners

QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION