COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

Catherine Bardier, MS
Director, Wellness and Population Health
New London Hospital, New London NH
LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Describe one approach that supports community engagement and outreach for increasing person-centered ACP conversations.

2. Identify one strategy to support ongoing collaboration with local community partners to increase access and participation in ACP conversations.

Our Story
Honoring Care Decisions (HCD)

Our Honoring Care Decisions Team

- ACP Lead
- HCD Nation
- Chaplain
- Social Workers
- Transition Care RN
- Care Manager

Community Partners
- Visiting Nurse Assoc
- Serenaders
- Older Services of Community Action Program

Advance Care Team

Interfaith Community
- Interfaith Leadership Council

Community Members
- Town Selectmen
- Former Parish MRI
The HCD Team - Community Collaboration

- Central Ownership
- Community Volunteer Ambassador Program
- Identify local partners and get them to the table
- Healthcare and Community TOGETHER with a common goal
- Friendly competition

Education - Community Collaboration

- Churches, Libraries, Meeting Houses, Senior Centers, Schools, Homeowner / Condo Associations
- Employers: Incorporate ACP into Employee Wellness programs (including your own)
Offer a Menu of Options to the Community

- Menu of Options for the Community – Be Flexible!
  - Community Wellness Fairs
  - Training for health professionals
  - Flexible Presentation (30, 45 and 60 minutes)
  - Film* Viewing & Presentation
  - Panel Presentations and Q&A Discussion
  - 3 class Series (Film, Card Game and Presentation)
  - 4 Class Series with speakers (Legal, Spiritual, Funeral, ACP)

*Nine to Ninety, Taking Care of Dying time, Being Mortal
My Gift of Grace Card Game

Questions

Catherine Bardier, MS
Director, Wellness and Population Health
New London Hospital, New London NH
Catherine.bardier@newlondonhospital.org
603-526-5093
References:

Hazeleger, Tricia, (December 2016). Enabling State Wide Advance Care Planning Initiative